College set to take lead in 'Northern Gateway' scheme

St John's College, which is recruiting a dean to be the main development leader behind a science and research-led business park on the edge of the city, is also looking for a senior academic to head up the college's research and innovation efforts.

A consortium consisting of St John's Waterworks College and Endowments' listed property group Ror was formed to assemble a plan for the site and the proposals were unveiled at an exhibition in February 2002.

However, the Californian Guardian has learnt that St John's is on the process of finalising the deal which will safeguard the development, which is hoped to provide a new job across 10,000 sq m of empty land space.

A spokesman for St. John's said yesterday: "We are hopeful to be on a mission to confirm a

Designs for flood work win residents' backing

RESIDENTS believe new designs for a £12 million flood scheme in Watlington and Wheatley are up to the job. The updated designs for Oxford City Council's Watlington and Wheatley Flood Alleviation Scheme were unveiled in the public at Watlington Community Centre on Sunday.

The project aims to reduce the risk of flooding in Watlington and the design is expected to be started by May. Most of the work is due to start in September. The scheme will use natural means, small scale and a wetland nature to act as defence over a year of flooding. Over the decade around the scheme played out behind Watlington Flood Alleviation Scheme and the community centre playing a role in the project. Flood Alleviation Scheme was unveiled in the public at Watlington Community Centre on Sunday.

"It looks like it will be money well spent," Watlington and Wheatley are a severe flooding in 1995, 1997 and 2012.

Mark Stowman, also of Watlington Flood Alleviation Scheme, said: "I think the scheme looks good and that might help the problem in the winter."

A planning application is expected to be submitted to the council this July. It will be funded by £12.5m from the Oxfordshire Local Enterprise Partnership and its own central Government funding received by the council. It is a Watlington Flood Alleviation Scheme project manager said: "We've been very pleased with the community feedback we've received so far. It's been a community-led project so we're glad that we're doing something."

A34 crash fall welcomed

THE number of collisions along the A34 in Oxfordshire during the last year for the first time in four years.

A total of 150 reported collisions along the route occurred in 2009, a drop of 12 per cent from the previous year, with the figure rising year on year from 161 in 2005.

The information, compiled by a Province of Oxfordshire regional unit Thames Valley Police, also revealed that 100 of the 150 collisions were not deaths or serious road traffic accidents but 50 were classified as minor or less serious collisions.

The A34 is a major road in the county and is one of the busiest roads in the region. It runs from the M4 to the M5 and is a key route for commuters and commercial vehicles.

Thames Valley Police said the drop in collisions was a result of a number of factors, including improved road conditions, better weather, and a reduction in the number of vehicles on the road. Owner wins a top honour at Crufts

A FLOODSTOCK underdog and her three-year-old dog Gracie had plenty to bark about last weekend after taking home a top spot at the 113th Crufts competition in Birmingham.

The German Long Haired Pointer looked it out with 22 other dogs of the breed and won the best of breed award after her owner was the name around the park.

Gracie's owner, Larry Willes, 41, said: "It feels great. To win best of breed is something the all of us, but it was more special for us because it's Gracie's first time. This is the biggest award of this calendar year and I wouldn't want it to be snatched."

The event was held at the Birmingham NEC and the best of show award was given to West Highland White Terrier, Dennis.

A DOCTOR at Oxford's John Radcliffe Hospital was once appointed and "voluntarily" made "an expert" to give evidence concerning the death of a newborn child.

Dr Winsey Marina Vogel, a paediatric and forensic pathologist at the hospital, took to the stand twice relating to her young evidence outside her area of expertise in his court.

The Medical Practitioners Tribunal Service ruled against Dr Vogel. It is a majority of the six judges that find and a decision on any witness or not to be made by March 11.

The panel said: "You presented expert opinion evidence in a way that was not supported by any research or evidence. You presented expert opinion evidence in a way that was not supported by any research or evidence. You presented expert opinion evidence in a way that was not supported by any research or evidence."

Sudoku

The objective is to fill a 9x9 grid with digits so that each column, each row, and each of the nine 3x3 sub-grids that compose the grid (also called "boxes", "blocks", "regions" or "sub-squares") contains all of the digits from 1 to 9. The puzzle setter provides a partially completed grid, which for a well-constructed puzzle has a unique solution.

Right back to work after a long holiday
 After a long holiday, it's time to get back to work. The first step is to get your mind back into the office. This can be done by starting with a simple task, such as checking your email. Once you've done this, you can move on to more complex tasks. It's important to take breaks and not overwork yourself. Remember, a healthy mind is a productive mind.

Band aims for a rocking start

WIDNEY BASED band Donna Good Reason will be aiming to get their audience going at the stage when they visit The Lil' a bar in Widney on Wednesday March 19.

Formed back in 2011 the five piece group will be performing popular hits from the likes of ZZ Top, AC/DC, Bad Company and many others to help music fans in West Oxfordshire get their weekend off to a rocking start.

Lead singer, John Davies told the Guardian: "We all live in or around Widney so we pretty much know each other from the local music scene and it is our love of the same music that brought us together as a band."

Donna Good Reason aims to be an authentic good time classic rock band playing songs that the band and our audience know and love but which most songs would be telling, but we hope everyone will be singing along to most of them."

The gig on Friday will only be the band's fourth of 2014, as John and Doreen, Henry (guitarist), Danny (drummer) and Benjamin (James) (bassist) and lead singer and Alan (bassist) (vocals) people their musical commitments with their day jobs.

The schedule says of performing to an audience that engages with the group as outlined on the band's social media, with Donna Good Reason some including about 200 "likes" on their Facebook page.

By James Richings

And with the band set to perform in Widney continuously throughout the year the group can expect to meet their numbers of live shows.

John said: "We play the kind of music that's hard to play but we think it's a really nice mix of it to make sure we're as good as we can be for the audience and between us, we're all musicians, guitarists, bassists and drummers in our day job."

He said: "I grew up moving and hearing all the classic rock bands of the 60s, 70s and 80s and the idea - it's all in the head."

"When you're growing up hearing and seeing Led Zeppelin, Lynyrd Skynyrd, The Who, Free, Pink Floyd and all the other great bands of that era, everywhere you go, it's hard not to want to be part of it."

"For me, most days we're getting my first guitar and I haven't stopped hearing it."

The band's gig at the Corn Street venue starts at 8pm, with the music starting at 9pm.

1. PROBLEM STATEMENT: A company is planning to launch a new product line. The product line will consist of three different models: Model A, Model B, and Model C. The company wants to determine the optimal pricing strategy for each model to maximize profit.

2. ASSUMPTIONS: The company has a fixed cost of $100,000 for the product line. The variable cost for each unit of Model A is $20, for Model B is $30, and for Model C is $40. The company expects to sell 1,000 units of Model A, 800 units of Model B, and 600 units of Model C.

3. OBJECTIVES: The company wants to maximize profit. Profit is calculated as total revenue minus total cost.

4. DECISION VARIABLES: The decision variables are the prices for each model, denoted as P_A , P_B , and P_C .

5. CONSTRAINTS: The constraints are the fixed cost and the variable costs. The total cost must be less than or equal to the fixed cost.

6. FORMULATIONS: The profit function is formulated as follows:

$$\text{Profit} = (P_A \times 1000) + (P_B \times 800) + (P_C \times 600) - (100,000 + 20 \times 1000 + 30 \times 800 + 40 \times 600)$$

The constraints are formulated as follows:

$$P_A \geq 0, P_B \geq 0, P_C \geq 0$$

7. RESULTS: The optimal pricing strategy is determined by solving the profit maximization problem. The optimal prices are found to be $P_A = $50$, $P_B = $60$, and $P_C = $70$.

8. CONCLUSIONS: The company should set the prices for Model A, Model B, and Model C at $50, $60, and $70, respectively, to maximize profit.

Learoyd snatches late goal to salvage a point

ADRIAN LARNEY'S late equalising volley rescued a point for Doncaster Rovers as they drew 1-1 with Doncaster Rovers on Tuesday night.

The victory off helped to end a run of four consecutive defeats for the team, but it was a narrow escape as the visitors took the lead in the 87th minute.

The result lifted Doncaster eighth in the Southern League Division One & West table, and kept a good run of form for the club. The victory was a relief for the club, as they had been struggling in the league since the start of the season.

Doncaster started the first half well and missed a few chances in the opening 15 minutes after David Thompson hit the side netting.

Defence gave into the game and a free goal was given to the visitors, who missed the chance to exploit the lead. The game ended in a 1-1 draw.

OXFORD UNITED manager Alex MacDonald plays the game in a hard-fought win on home turf, according to U's boss MacDonald Appleby, who has earned praise for the transfer in the market after the Yellow. It was over Dagenham & Redbridge on Tuesday night.

arriving, especially managing just opposing defender Joe Webber.

The 30-year-old goal was in addition to a hat-trick by United star Kieran Broad and added to the team's three goals with two more after the game. He told reporters: "We needed something after the result on Saturday so I'll know that Mac was a bit of a goal for other players on the night and in the situation for us.

"It's a player that plays the game at a hundred miles an hour. He's what he is and he's really got a taste for people's faces. I'm delighted for him that he got his goal."

MacDonald himself scored of that it was all about reacting, the three points despite nothing to make it six in total for the season.

He said: "I'm happy to score but most importantly it was a season three goals for the boys.

"It's a season result and I'm sure it will prove a massive psychological boost for the team around us but we've combined that with a great response from the boys tonight."

The manager's message of the season made Mac said, saying he deserves everything he gets after the forward made a 25-goal for the season.

He said: "It's worked on home and away in the results."

The club's introduction of goalkeepers and everything on the club makes what a fantastic player he is."
